

6516205722.txt

As a long time user of satellite radio. I welcome the growth and addition of provided services. The addition of city specific weather and traffic is a long needed service for those of us who spend many hours on the road. I would like to ask th FCC to reject the petition 04-160. The restriction to a service I am willing to pay for seems to be against the foundation of this countries ideals. Produce what the consumer wants.